

“Mansão do Caminho” (Mansion of the Way)

In 1948, Divaldo Franco and his cousin, Nilson de Souza Pereira - current Executive Director of the Mansion of the Way - were traveling by train when Divaldo - looking through the window - had a psychic vision. He saw a place with lots of trees, buildings, adults and children. And there was also an old man whom Divaldo identified as himself in the future. That vision caused him a tremendous impact. Both Nilson and Divaldo got to be puzzled with Divaldo's vision. It was when a voice whispered to Divaldo: “This is what you will do in your life, you will educate people”.

One year later, in a mediumistic meeting, an Enlightened Spirit spoke through Divaldo about a spiritual program to be built in Salvador, Bahia - Brazil. An educational program based on foster homes was proposed by the Enlightened Spirit. And Divaldo and Nilson accepted the challenge. Together with the help of collaborators, they put a bid on a mansion in 1951. That was the first building of the Mansion of the Way which was officially founded on August 15, 1952.

Today, “Mansão do Caminho” has become a large educational institution, with 50 buildings in an area of 893,400 square feet. Over 3,000 children, teenagers and their families receive free food, education and general assistance on a daily basis.

To this date, over 30,000 boys and girls have received education and care at “Mansão do Caminho”'s many schools.
